

Do You Know What It Means To Miss New Orleans

Rawhide 826

Verse 1:

Do you know what it means to miss New Orleans,
And miss it each night and day,
I know I'm not wrong, this feeling's getting stronger,
The longer I stay away,

Miss the moss covered vines, the tall sugar pines,
Where mockingbirds used to sing,
And I'd like to see, that lazy Mississippi,
Hurryin' Into spring.

Verse 2:

The moonlight on the bayou,
A Creole tune that fills the air,
I dream about magnolias in bloom,
And I'm wishing I was there.

Do you know what it means to miss New Orleans,
When that's where I left my heart,
And there's something more, I miss the one I care for,
More than I miss New Orleans.

Verse 3:

The moonlight on the bayou,
A Creole tune that fills the air,
I dream about magnolias in bloom,
And I'm wishing I was there.

Do you know what it means to miss New Orleans,
When that's where I left my heart,
And there's something more, I miss the one I care for,
More than I miss New Orleans.

Verse 4:

Do you know what it means to miss New Orleans,
And miss it each night and day,
I know I'm not wrong, this feeling's getting stronger,
The longer I stay away,

Miss the moss covered vines, the tall sugar pines,
Where mockingbirds used to sing,

And I'd like to see, that lazy Mississippi,
Hurryin' Into spring.

Ending:
Hurryin' Into spring.
